

What are Your Concerns when hiring a professional fundraising auctioneer? You Are Not Alone...

... with Chad Coe, you get more than an auctioneer.
You get a trusted advisor!

Someone who can get on stage and maximize your items' values while promoting your cause. He doesn't stop there. Look at this list of services Chad provides:

- Provide consulting throughout the year for your event
- Design and conduct a winning fund a need and Paddle raise
- Organize a timeline to maximize your event revenue
- Put your auction items in their most effective order
- Training and procurement of auction items
- Auction event marketing techniques
- Access to several revenue enhancers to increase your event's bottom line
- How to run the most successful silent auction
- Which items you should be obtaining for your audience
- How to effectively check-in and checkout attendees
- Committee consultations
- Volunteer training
- Answer any questions surrounding your fundraising efforts
- Access to exclusive auction items
- Licensed and bonded auctioneers
- Provide professionally trained bid assistants
- Event follow-up meeting

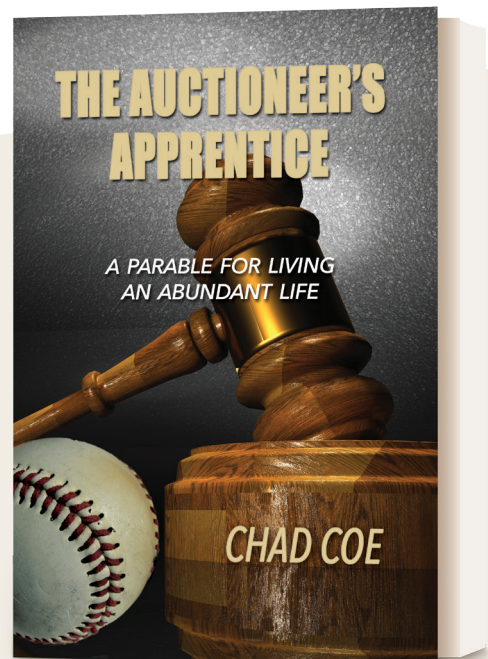

Chad's Passion and Enthusiasm are Contagious!

Because Chad believes it is his job is to "inspire audiences to give", he works tirelessly with each client to plan entertaining benefit auctions that are engaging while supporting the purpose of the organization. His unique fundraising ideas have brought fundraising to a new level.

Many clients saw double their anticipated goals!

Chad enthusiastically engages the audience to spend more money than they had planned while feeling really great about their contributions! Let Chad's skills and passion for charitable fundraising through auctions maximize the proceeds and the excitement for your next event.

Don't let your event keep you up at night!
Hire Chad Coe and hit the snooze button!

Chad Coe is dedicated to helping others more effectively pursue their fundraising goals.

*Featuring Chad's 3rd empowering book, The Auctioneer's Apprentice.